Numa Numa: The Life and Afterlife of the Second King of Rome

Friday, October 13, 2017

8:30am - 11:00am

Christopher Smith - An Archaeological Numa?

Laura Salaris and Prisca Solaini - The Archaeological Museum of Fara in Sabina: The Materials of Cures Sabini

Liv Mariah Yarrow - The Early Flexibility of Numa's Image

Parrish Wright - Numa and the Construction of Sabine Identity in Roman Sources

11:15am - 12:30pm

Lindsay G. Driediger-Murphy - Numa and Jupiter: Whose Smile Is It, Anyway?

Celia E. Schultz - Numa's Books

2:00pm - 3:45pm

Jackson Bryce - Numa Under Christian Eyes

Jeremy Swist - King Numa and Emperor Julian

Sara Ahbel-Rappe - Numa, Pythagoras, and Philosophical Polities in Italy

4:00pm - 5:10pm

Moa Ekbom - Numa in Late Antiquity: Pagan Context and Contrast in the Historia Augusta

Sviatoslav Dmitriev - John Lydus' Ideal Ruler: The Afterlife of Numa in Early Byzantium

Saturday, October 14, 2017

8:30am - 10:15am

Caroline Stark - Numa as Renaissance Exemplar for Popes and Princes

Arlene W. Saxonhouse - Machiavelli: Numa (Moses?) and Myths of Foundations in Early Modern Thought

John Martin - Numa and Early Modern Religion

10:30am - 12:15pm

Jean-Marc Kehres - Florian's Numa

Jonas Wellendorf - From Numa to Núma: Sigurður Breiðfjörð's Núma-rímur

Mark Silk - Egeria in the 19th century: Romantic Icon, Medium, Proto-feminist

LSA CLASSICAL STUDIES
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

Department of Classical Studies Library, 2175 Angell Hall

Sponsored By:

Trinity College | U-M Classical Studies | U-M Office of Research | U-M Institute for the Humanities | U-M History | U-M Greek and Roman History | U-M Eisenberg Institute | U-M Contexts for Classics